THE ELEPHANT

there's an elephant in front of the house an elephant? an elephant
what is he doing?
shut the door
why? has it a deeper meaning?
I don't know keep him out!
don't let him in!
tuut! tuut! elephant!
let's go to the balcony
is this an elephant?

Ruby says there's an elephant in front of the house
Ruby? she's stupid
Oh Ruby tinkle-tinkle oh-oooh call it a stone
but not an elephant
call it a donkey
call it whatever you want anything
but not an elephant
a stone? is that a stone?
do you call that a stone?
what else? a donkey?
an elephant I said an elephant why not a donkey
if an elephant it could as well be a donkey anyway close the frontdoor she reads too many books elephants are not supposed to stand in frontdoors if so I am an elephant too kiekeboe! tuut-tuut! elephant!
look at the elephant!

I don't have anything to do with that elephant
oh I don't have anything to do with that elephant
I don't have anything to do with that elephant
